

Dogs make better pets than cats

Many households around the world keep cats and dogs as pets. Both pets make great companions however dogs make much better pets than cats because you can interact with them more easily.

Dogs need to be walked every day. This helps to keep dog owners fit and active.

You can train dogs more easily than cats. You can teach them tricks like fetch, sit and roll over. You can even teach them to put their paw in your hand and shake, just like when humans shake hands!

Dogs are protective. When a stranger comes to your home some dogs bark. This is how they protect their masters.

Dogs are always happy to see you. They will greet you when you come home from work or school by wagging their tails and jumping around.

Dogs are very clever which means they can be given serious jobs. Farm dogs help farmers round up cattle. Guide dogs help blind people move around more easily. Sniffer dogs are used at airports to keep us safe. Police dogs can even help police to catch criminals!

Dogs make better pets than cats because dogs are easier to interact with. They are also clever and can help humans in different situations. No wonder they are known as man's best friend!
